

2018-2019 Assessment #19: Greek Mythology Report

	Criteria		Points
1	Content	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Included an introduction, body, and conclusion References to literature, films, art, and other media were presented. (Example: Cupid in poetry or paintings)
2	Organization	Transitions from one topic to the next were smooth. Notes from index cards were used lightly.
3	Length (3-6 minutes)	Kept within allotted time
4	Posture / gestures / eye contact	Maintained adequate posture and eye contact. Used appropriate gestures.
5	Speech	Could be heard at all times and clearly understood by all. Pronunciation was adequate.
6	Vocabulary usage	Correct and meaningful vocabulary was used.
7	Grammar usage	Few or no errors; the few errors evident did not impede understanding.
8	Audiovisual aids or props used	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Used a variety of media such as a slideshow, a short video, artwork, and other images. Related objects or clothing were used during the presentation.
9	Reference sources (3 or more)	See following page for types of reference materials that may be used in the report.
10	Punctuality	Ready when called upon to present.
	Total score

Scale: 5 - 2

5 - Excellent
4 - Good

3 - Satisfactory
2 - Poor

Related to criteria #8:

If a video is used, this should be limited to 90 seconds. A slideshow should be limited to no more than 10 slides (including introduction and conclusion). Each slide should have only the basic ideas. The reference material used will be on the last slide after the conclusion.

Related to criteria #9:

Types of Reference Materials

- Almanacs
- Atlas & Maps
- Bibliographies
- Biographical Resources
- Dictionaries
- Directories
- Encyclopedias
- Handbooks
- Indexes

Reliable web pages may be used but should be limited to one ending in .org and one ending in .edu.

English Department