Class Activities Summary

Alanis Aviles Negron

April 15/17

On April 15, I shared a story of mine about my past with my stepfather. I used the words: invincible and unstoppable for my poem. It was okay the activity, just I didn't know how to explain my poem because of my past. It was a little bit difficult.

On April 17, we started the presentations and the one who started presenting was me, then Fabian and Julian. I talked about Elizabeth Bishop and her story had a impact on me because of what happen with her father and mother. Honestly how the presentation had to be made, I liked it. It was clean and easy to present.

April 19/25

On April 19, Dariel, Angel Mia and Andrea presented their poet. For me, the poem I most enjoyed was Andrea's. "Daddy" (the name of the poem) of what I understood, the poem is talking about how Sylvia express her intense emotions towards her father and her husband because of the information Andra gave us.

On April 23, Adrian, Luciano, Zayas, Victoria, Johanelys, Diego and Adriana presented their poet. The funny thing is that Zayas' poet "Elizabeth Barrett" is named like mine "Elizabeth Bishop". I loved Adriana's poem "Phenomenal Woman" because it's giving women are a powerful presence because of our confidence and strength and also our beauty.

April 25/29

On April 25, we started working with the assessment #13: Demonstrative Speech. I selected three topics I'm most educated about. Self care, outfit forming and how to manage time. I selected self care, how to wash your hair properly. I selected that because is simple and I love that topic.

PROPERLY

On April 29, started working Listening-Speaking Activity IX: English Class Closing Summary and those who haven't finished the demonstrative speech, had to finish it. I was thinking about what should I talk about for my closing but I haven't made up my mind yet.

May 1/3

On May 1, we started presenting the Demonstrative Speech. Julian, Zayas, Luciano, Fabian, Angel, Andrea, Dariel and I presented today. There was some pretty interesting and fun presentations. The ones I liked the most was Zayas and Mia. Zayas talked about doing tricks with your dog, it really inspired me to try training my dog Bigote. I enjoyed this project very much.

On May 3, Adriana, Diego and Johanelys presented their topic. My favorite among them was Diego. His topic was about forming outfits and the ones I liked the most was the second one because have beach vibes and neutrals colors. Johanelys' topic was about how to prepare the skin before applying makeup. Because I know how to prepare the skin, I didn't learn something new.

Conclusion

In conclusion, this past week has been fun. I have enjoyed every single activity and project. I learned about poetry and about few poets. The demonstrative speech was one of my favorite projects because I talked about something I have a lot of knowledge and very passionate about.
